

THE SCHAEFER
CENTER PRESENTS...

REASONS FOR HOPE: A WEEK WITH DR. JANE GOODALL

Dr. Jane Goodall, DBE,
Founder of the Jane Goodall Institute & U.N. Messenger of Peace

NOV. 17 AT 7PM - JANE

A National Geographic documentary film by award-winning director Brett Morgen with an orchestral score by Philip Glass. Rated: PG

NOV. 18 AT 1PM -

LIVE ZOOM WEBINAR

REASONS FOR HOPE: A VIRTUAL DISCUSSION WITH JANE GOODALL

Presented by the Office of Sustainability, APPS (Appalachian Popular Programming Society), and the Office of Arts and Cultural Programs

Live, interactive Zoom event with university students and world-renowned ethologist, conservationist and humanitarian Dr. Jane Goodall, moderated by Dr. Lee Ball. Dr. Goodall will deliver a special presentation followed by an intimate Q&A session with Appalachian State University students who have been inspired by Dr. Goodall's commitment to conserve the natural world we all share, and her belief that everything is connected –and that everyone can make a difference.

AppState credentials needed to register; open to the first 1000 registrants.

To register, search for event on Engage or scan QR Code below.

NOV. 19 AT 8PM -

REASONS FOR HOPE: A VIRTUAL DISCUSSION WITH JANE GOODALL

A rebroadcast of the Nov. 18 live event. Registration is open to the public and is unlimited.

Appalachian
STATE UNIVERSITY

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE; REGISTRATION REQUIRED

TheSchaeferCenter.org | Box Office: 828-262-4046