(1) Let youthful voices resound today joyfully praising Him who is born for us, who is given unto us by the most high God, and brought forth from a Virgin. (2) He is born in the world, is wrapped in swaddling cloths, and placed in a manger in a stable of beasts. He is the Ruler over all things. (The Prince of Darkness thus has lost his prey!) (3) Three wise men come, bearing gifts. They have found the babe by following a little star. Adoring the Lord, they offer Him gold, incense, and myrrh. (4) Let all the young choristers now sing as did the angels, praising Him who has come into the world: "Glory to God in the highest!"

(1) Shepherds sang their praises o'er him called by angels to adore him: 'Have no fear, but come before him: Born is now your glorious King!' (2) Eastern sages came to view him, Judah's conquering Lion knew him, gold, and myrrh, and incense to him as their tribute offering. (3) On this Child, rejoicing, gaze we; led by Mary, anthems raise we; reverently, with angels, praise we with the sweetest melody. (4) Christ our King, from Mary springing, God made man, salvation bringing, Thee we worship, ever singing: 'Honor, praise, and glory be!'
