Appalachian State University policy requires face coverings (worn over the nose and mouth) for audience members. More information can be found by following the link at appstate.edu to pages about face coverings and COVID-19 updates. As you select your seating, please leave space between you and adjacent parties to allow for physical distancing. Following the performance, audience members can meet performers in the lobbies of the Broyhill Music Center, Schaefer Center, or outdoors. Due to congestion and COVID-19 protocols, stage, backstage, and backstage hallways are not accessible after the program. Thank you for your understanding and compliance. Enjoy the performance!

*The mountain is green; the stream is blue.
The maidens of Ali Mountain are as beautiful as the water;
The young men of Ali Mountain are as strong as the mountain.
The mountain is always green; the stream is always blue.
The maiden and that youth will never be separated -
Like the Bi River always encircling the green mountain.*

Flight Song

music by Kim André Arnesen, words by Euan Tait

Rainbow Connection

arr. Benjamin Harding

Appalachian Treble Choir and Appalachian Glee Club
